Paul Dillon (<http://www.pauldillondrums.com>) is a fabulous drum teacher. He's enthusiastic about music, and offers lessons in his professional studio setting. The student plays drums while listening to rock and roll! I highly recommend Paul Dillon as one of the best drum teachers in Arlington.

Paul is great. Very patient with my son who is thrilled to play in Paul's studio. Even the parent gets to sit and listen with their own set of headphones. Makes my heart burst to see my son rockin' out to classic rock.
